Thou art broken every vow
We have parted from each other
And my love is lightly now.

I'll love naught, my take it where it
Do another smile as fair as thine
And thy voice I must forget.

Oh, it will all be over
This sad game of love
Farewell farewell love.

We have met and seen of pleasure
We have met in halls of pride
I have seen thy chosen bride,

I have marked the deceit in
Lighting down most lofty eye
I have seen the gaze upon her
Feigning love to thy

I pray that we may never
Fair lass would I forget thee
Even pity to regret thee

We have met and we have parted
But I intend some a land
Like a guilty stranger entered
In thy sad brown breast heart.

Oh! the day it came at last
When the glorious trumpet sounded and the boys came marching from the battle field along the road
Through the cities and towns
As the boys of '61 came marching along.

Oh, Oh, Oh the boys came marching
Like a grand majestic sea
And they dashed across the plains
Upon the heavy cannons clattering over
And the blood ran down the gutters

Oh! the feeblest heart grew strong
And the most despondent sure
When we heard the bugles sounding
For the boys to start out
For we longer should endure
When the call of freedom reached our prison walls
To arms

Oh! the roar of cannon
And the deafening shouts
And the cries of the slaughtered victims
But we never should forget
Those days of bloodshed
When our boys came tramping on.
To arms.

The Land Shark

Must be read in

The Land Shark feeds on the sailor's gold
He's his throbbing heart grows faint and cold
He [illegible] and still he [illegible]
And lays his head with a ghastly leer

O! where the wildwind powerless flies,
And where the timid minnows skip,
And close by the surf of the mighty deep
The gaily sail with the Land Shark's sweep

By the Devil's [illegible]
For the valley dark in the harbour haught
Quick as the wolfin comes to the lair
He is clutched by the jaw monster there

What careth he for the sailors cries
For his father's groans, for his mother's sighs
He hath sought that sailor from pole to pole
And the Land Shark eats him body and soul

For the Land Shark's hands there is music too
And the seething waves of the boat are blue
The agony last and the gambler's skull
Are black in the Land Shark's jack to Hell

Ah seldom shall ever his victim [illegible]
From his landlord's gripe and his demon's glare
Be at home or abroad through every cloud
The Land Shark swims in the sailor's blood

She could see
And sweet my dear dirt and
Silver and gold and paper and stuff
I smile to see them sweep off.

Guineas and dollars dollars and dimes
A empty pocket is the worst of crimes
If a man's down give him a thrust
Trample like brass under his dust

He is with child

Guineas and dollars dollars and blame
And empty pocket is the worst of crime

Darling Nelly Gray

There is a low green valley, on the old Kentucky shore
There is where I many happy hours spent
I sitting and a singing by the little cottage door
There lived my darling Nelly Gray

Chorus

Oh my poor Nelly Gray, they have taken her away
And I'll never see my darling any more
I'm sitting by the river and a weeping all the day
For you're gone from the old Kentucky shore

One night I went to see her but she's gone the neighbors say
The white man has come for with his chain
They have taken her to Georgia for to work her life away
As she toils in the cotton and the cane

Chorus Oh my poor Nelly Gray

My canoe is moored the water and my banjo is unstrung
I'm tired of living any more
My eyes shall look downward and my song songs shall be sung
While I stay on the old Kentucky shore

Oh my poor Nelly Gray

My eyes are getting blinded and I cannot see my way
While there's something rolling all the tears
I can hear the angels calling and I see my Nelly Gray
Standing at the old Kentucky shore

Oh my darling Nelly Gray, up in heaven there they say
That I'll never part from you my more
I am coming - coming as the angles clear the way
Receive it to the old Kentucky shore
